VBC Day # 3 – 2018
I will care for others.

(Gus enters coughing violently)

(Pete enters)

Pete: What's wrong Gus, are you feeling ok?

Gus: No… (he starts coughing again)

(Pete and Gus exit for a second)

(Pete and Gus enter) (Then the rest of the gang enter)

Gang: Pete, do you want to go to the pool with us?

Pete: I would really like to… (hesitates) but Gus is sick and I have to take care of Gus.

(Pete and Gus exits)

Cindy: I hope Gus feels better.

George: Too bad Pete couldn't come to the pool.

Betty: I wish he could…

Cindy: Hey, I have an idea…

George: I think I know where you are going…

Betty: Yeah, we could go hang out with Pete and Gus instead of going to the pool!

George & Cindy: That's a great idea… that's what we were thinking!

(knocking sound)

(Pete and Gus enter)

Pete: Hey, I thought you guys were going to the pool? What are you doing here?

George: We decided to stay here and help you care for Gus, just like Jesus cared for his people. He took care of them when they needed help and made sure they were healthy and safe.

Betty: Yeah, that's right!

Cindy: We can take care of other people just like Jesus took care of his people.

Pete: That is so nice of you! That really does remind me of Jesus! Gus, isn't that so nice of our friends to come and help take care of you?

Gus: Yes! Thank you so much (coughing) for helping to take care (coughing) of me!

Betty: We wouldn't want to go to the pool and leave you here feeling sick.

Cindy: Oh by the way, I have a soft blanket for Gus to snuggle up with, that should make you feel better.

Pete: Wow… thank you, Cindy.

George: Here, we also brought you some dog food, and some treats. And here is a new toy for you. We hope these things will make you feel better.

Gus: Hey, I am feeling much better already. Thank you for taking care of me.

Betty: Whoa… a talking dog, that is going to take some getting used to…

Cindy: Maybe now that you are feeling better, we could all go to the pool now?!

Pete: I think that's a great idea!

Gus: Let's go!

George: Come on!

THE END.

The Puppets will perform "Our God is a Great Big God."
